

Kyles of Bute and the Crinin Canal 6-nights

Whole boat charter for 6 people £2,300 or £420 per person coming on board as individuals on a mixed guest holiday

Departs weekly on Saturdays from Holy Loch, Dunoon, June – October.
Boarding 3 pm

Sail some of the most spectacular sea lochs of the Cowal peninsular and watch for sea birds and marine mammals. Learn to sail the boat and participate in a range of activities, depending on your own preferences. Relax and enjoy the beautiful coastline of a pristine environment. Go ashore to explore and cycle the Crinan Canal which meanders through truly magnificent scenery, rich in history, with many world class heritage sites. It is a designated wildlife reserve with miles of forest walks and cycle ways.

Example holiday itinerary:

Day 1 (Saturday): Depart Holy Loch Marina and sail to the Kyles of Bute. Watch for grey seals, a variety of bird life and try a spot of fishing. Anchor off a remote inlet and have dinner to the backdrop of wonderful scenery and the gentle splashing of the waves

Day 2 (Sunday) Enjoy breakfast at anchor then enter the basin of the Crinan Canal at Ardrishaig

Days 3, 4 and 5 (Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday) . Explore the Crinan Canal and take the boat through the lochs. Go cycling each day to explore the area. Take a trip to Kilmartin Glen and discover the ancient archaeology there and Danadd, known as the birthplace of Scotland as it was the capital of the Scots Kingdom of Dalriada.

Day 6 (Thursday) Leave the Canal and head down Loch Fyne to Kyles of Bute, taking the opportunity to explore remote Loch Riddon and Loch Striven.

Day 7 (Friday) Sail the coast of Cowal to Holy loch and disembark at 1100 am

This holiday may be available for departing on other days of the week, and for a longer duration, please contact us to discuss your requirements

Getting to Holy Loch: If arriving by train to Glasgow, take the connection to Gourock which includes the ferry trip to Dunoon. If arriving at Glasgow Airport, we provide a free pick up at 1pm on the Saturday for boarding at Holy Loch at 3pm. If arriving by car, free parking is available at Holy Loch Marina which is secured by locked gates at night.*